

THE METH WATCH BREAKFAST OF CHAMPIONS

PRESENTS:

THE CHANGING TRENDS IN METH

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: SPECIAL AGENT DEBORA PODKOWA

MUKOGAWA FORT GEORGE WRIGHT INSTITUTE
4000 W. RANDOLPH ROAD SPOKANE, WA
APRIL 19, 2007 8:00AM – 11:00AM

8:00-9:00am Hot Buffet Breakfast

9:00-10:15am Main Presentation with local experts

10:15-11:00am Community networking and discussion

U. S. Drug Enforcement Administration in partnership with GSSAC Prevention Center, have invited Special Agent Debora Podkowa from Portland, OR, to be our keynote speaker. Special Agent Podkowa will be presenting on the latest trends of Meth trafficking and production on the West coast and how those trends affect our communities. This issue affects all of Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho, the community and retailers are invited to join in creating a network to find a solution to this rising problem. Breakfast is provided. Please RSVP by April 16, 2007 to Lee Lingard, Regional Meth Watch Coordinator, (509) 922-8383 or Llingard@gssacpreventioncenter.com